UN Foundation is currently exploring the following questions:

- 1. What is the 'state of innovation' within the UN system – Where is innovation thriving and why? Where are there barriers?
- 2. Are there opportunities for UNF to support the UN to showcase, encourage, and scale up innovation?
- 3. Which partners and funders are interested in scaling innovation?

Overview of the process: what is happening?

This project has surveyed over 50 stakeholders to study the landscape of innovation within the UN and identify opportunities for UNF to help showcase, foster, and scale innovation in the UN.
