

Pierre Dorbes joined the ICRC in 1995. He served as a Communications Delegate for the ICRC in Azerbaijan from 1995 through 1997, moving in that capacity to Uzbekistan where he worked from 1997 to 1999. He subsequently worked as a Protection Coordinator for the ICRC in a variety of contexts, including Nepal (2000 – 2002), Rwanda (2003 – 2004) and Myanmar (2005 – 2006). From 2002 – 2003 he served as the Deputy Head of the ICRC Regional Delegation for Southern Africa and the Indian Ocean. Pierre was Head of the ICRC Sub-Delegation in Bucaramanga, Northeastern Colombia, from 2006 – 2008, and served as the Deputy Head of the ICRC Delegation in Israel & the Occupied Territories from 2008 to 2010. Since August 2010, he has been the Delegate in charge of humanitarian coordination issues at the ICRC Delegation to the United Nations in New York.

Christophe Lobry-Boulanger came to the Red Cross from the United Nations System where he was a Political Affairs Officer in the Security Council Research Branch. After leading the American Red Cross International Services Department in New York for 6 years, he now serves as advisor to the International Federation of Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies - Delegation to the United Nations for the past year. He remains senior faculty advisor in International Humanitarian Law dissemination for the American Red Cross . His deployments as an international delegate have been in Kenya 2009, Pakistan (2010) after the monsoon floods as Relief ERU team leader and in Haiti (2010) after the earthquake as lead assessment person.