

INFORM

INDEX FOR RISK MANAGEMENT

OFFICIAL LAUNCH EVENT

2016 INFORM GLOBAL results INFORM SUBNATIONAL strategy

1400 -1530, Friday 27 November
Room XI, Palais des Nations, Geneva

INFORM is the first global, open-source risk assessment for humanitarian crises and disasters. It can support decisions about prevention, preparedness and response. The event will include the release of the 2016 INFORM GLOBAL results and the launch of INFORM SUBNATIONAL, which can be used to assess risk across regions and countries. Come and find out more.

Chair

Mr Rashid Khalikov, Director, OCHA Geneva

Speakers

Dr Tom De Groeve, Senior Scientist, Joint Research Centre, European Commission
Dr Michelle Gayer, Director a.i., Emergency Risk Management & Humanitarian Response, WHO
Mr Claus Sørensen, Senior Adviser for Resilience, Humanitarian Aid and Crisis Response, European Political Strategy Centre
Mr Craig Williams, Chief, Field Information Services, OCHA

This event is open, but space is limited. If you wish to attend and do not have a pass for the Palais des Nations, contact Ana Maria Donamaria (donamaria@un.org) by 20 November. See www.inform-index.org for more details about INFORM.

