

WORLD
HUMANITARIAN SUMMIT

“We look to the World Humanitarian Summit to generate strong global support for bold changes in humanitarian action. This is the only way we will meet the enormous challenges we face in the coming years and decades.”

Global Consultation

Geneva, 14-16 October 2015

- 1,194 participants from 153 countries, representing many stakeholder groups.

5 action areas:

Dignity

Safety

Resilience

Partnerships

Finance

Next steps

Upcoming milestones

Outcomes of global processes & reviews

- COP21
- 32nd RCRC int'l conference
- HLPs on Health Crises and Humanitarian Finance

Launch of online action platform

Launch of the S-G Report on WHS with priority recommendations

WHS

DEC 2015

JAN/FEB 2016

MAR 2016

MAY 2016

Istanbul, 23-24 May 2016

“The Summit will be a platform for Heads of State and Government, and leaders from civil society, the private sector, crisis-affected communities and multilateral organizations, to announce how they intend to act on the priority areas” – Ban Ki-moon

THANK YOU

