

IASC TASK TEAM ON HUMANITARIAN DEVELOPMENT NEXUS / UNWGT WORKSHOP
Date and Location		20 – 21 October 2016, Apella Conference Space at Alexandria Center, 450 East 29 th Street, 2 nd Floor, New York, NY 10016
Expected Outcomes of Workshop		Enhanced understanding amongst IASC TT and UNWGT of joint analysis and planning across humanitarian-development-peace nexus Roadmap for action that feeds into the work plans of the two mechanisms;
#	Time	Topic	Details (Objective, guiding questions and methodology of the session)	Lead speaker/ Facilitator
Thursday, 20 October 2016
	8.30-9.00	Breakfast
1	9:00 – 9:20	Welcome and opening remarks		Magdy Martinez-Soliman, Assistant Administrator and Director of the Bureau for Policy and Programme Support, UNDP
2	9:20 – 10:00	Setting the scene	Objective: To provide an overview on where the global policy conversation on the humanitarian-development-peace nexus currently stands, how it relates to country operationalisation and challenges that need to be taken forward in the coming 12 months. Background documents for the session:  Paper on financing (FAO/ICVA);  Hum/Dev/Peace nexus paper (PBSO);  Paper on typologies (WHO);	Sarah Cliffe
3	10:00 – 10:45	A view from the field –Lebanon as an example of coherence	Objective: Elaboration of a country experience on how work on the humanitarian-development-peace nexus is being taken forward concretely within a fragile setting. Guiding questions:  How have joint analysis and joint planning been implemented in Lebanon? (Linkages between the LCRP and UNSF)	Philippe Lazzarini, Deputy Special Coordinator/RC/HC for Lebanon  (via Skype)

			What is the role of the Lebanese Government? What is the role of NGOs? Through what process and how have collective outcomes been defined in Lebanon, and how are stakeholders working towards these? Methodology: Presentation and QA
4	10:45 – 11:00	Coffee Break
5	11:00 – 11.45	Phrasing the context – humanitarian-development-peace nexus	Objective: An understanding amongst participants on the contextual parameters of the discussion around joint analysis and joint planning. Methodology: Facilitated dialogue based on the background paper on the issue Background documentation: Paper on humanitarian-development-peace nexus	Facilitation: Sarah Cliffe
6	11.45-13.00	Operationalising joint analysis Part I	Objective: Formulation of concrete entry points and identification of bottle necks in operationalising joint analysis at country level. Guiding questions: How do we effectively operationalize joint analysis? What tools can be utilized at country level to do so? What are the potential bottle necks in the context of interagency collaboration, government buy-in and leadership and planning timelines? What are the challenges across the various communities? How can these challenges be overcome in practice? Methodology: Participants will be split in groups to discuss joint analysis in an assigned country context. [Possible field colleagues could serve as resource persons in the groups, as sounding boards for the work and also to set the scene of specific typologies. Suggested field-based colleagues: Lebanon, Sudan, DRC and/or Somalia.] Groups will also be asked to start articulating points that can eventually be collated to form the joint roadmap.	Facilitation: Sarah Cliffe

			Background documents:  HDAG paper  Draft paper on typologies  Mapping of field level efforts and pilot country  Two pager, summary of planning tools
7	13:00 – 14:00	Lunch
	14:00 – 14:30	Operationalising joint analysis Part II	Objective: Plenary debrief on the main outcomes of the group work and analysis of any gaps. Methodology: Facilitated discussion where groups debrief in plenary	Facilitation: Sarah Cliffe
8	14:30 – 16:00	Advancing collective outcomes	Objective: Based on the work done within the analysis session, address how to move towards collective outcomes at the country level and initiate joint planning against the collective outcomes. Guiding questions:  How do we move from joint analysis towards defining collective outcomes?  What are the implications for planning, especially in the context of different time frames and current planning tools?  Concrete ways of advancing the agenda Methodology: 10-15-minute plenary presentation. Afterwards participants to join their respective breakout groups and, informed by the previous sessions, look at translating this to collective outcomes, according to the context of the group's assigned typology. Background document:  Draft principles of advancing collective outcomes (tbc)	Group Facilitators: DOCO, PBSO, OCHA, FAO
9	16:00 – 16:15	Coffee Break

10	16:15 – 17.30	Operationalising joint planning Part I	Objective: To identify initial parameters and entry point for joint planning. Guiding questions:  What were some of the identified challenges?_How can we conduct joint planning for collective outcomes?  What does it mean for existing planning frameworks?  What are possible entry points for advancing in certain contexts the ‘one country, one UN framework’ model?  What are the criterial and conditions for joint planning?  How do we utilize planning to better orient programming for collective outcomes? Methodology: Group work Background documents:  Mapping of field level efforts and pilot country  Two pager, summary of planning tools	Group Facilitators: DOCO, PBSO, OCHA, FAO
11	17:30 – 17:45	Wrap-up: recap of major issues from the day and identified action points/next steps		Facilitation: Sarah Cliffe
	18:00 - onwards	Drinks / dinner (venue tbc)

	Time	Topic	Details	Facilitator
Friday, 21 October 2016
12	9:00 – 9:15	Recap Day 1 and Introduction to Day 2
13	9:15 – 11:00	Operationalising joint planning Part II	Objective: Continue the previous day's exercise to identify initial parameters and entry points for joint planning. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Guiding questions: What were some of the identified challenges?_How can we conduct joint planning for collective outcomes?</li> <li>- What does it mean for existing planning frameworks?</li> <li>- What are possible entry points for advancing in certain contexts the 'one country, one UN framework' model?</li> </ul> Methodology: Group work and plenary debrief <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Background documents:</li> <li>- Mapping of field level efforts and pilot country</li> <li>- Two pager, summary of planning tools</li> </ul>	Group Facilitators: DOCO, PBSO, OCHA, FAO
14	11:00 – 11:15	Coffee Break
15	11:15 – 12:30	Roadmap: Identifying key actions, roles, responsibilities and timeframes Part I	Objective: For participants to develop a future roadmap for joint analysis and joint planning that can be shared by the work of the IASC hum/dev TT and UNWGT Guiding questions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Which part of the roadmap would be implemented where?</li> <li>- What are the timelines? Who are the leads?</li> <li>- How do we sustain the dialogue between the IASC TT and the UNDG-WGT?</li> </ul> Methodology: Group work	Group Facilitators: DOCO, PBSO, OCHA, FAO
16	12:30 - 13:30	Lunch

14 October 2016

17	13:30 – 15:00	Roadmap: Identifying key actions, roles, responsibilities and timeframe Part II	As above Methodology: Plenary	Facilitation: Sarah Cliffe
18	15:00 – 15:30	Wrap-up: recap of major issues, action points and next steps		Facilitation: Sarah Cliffe