

Gender and cash sub-workstream presentation Grand Bargain Cash workstream annual meeting 2020

During the second Grand Bargain Cash Work Stream Workshop in June 2018, meaningfully addressing gender in cash and voucher assistance (CVA) was set as a priority action. CARE and UN Women committed to lead a sub-workstream dedicated to mainstreaming gender throughout the Cash Workstream. The sub-workstream members, composed of NGOs, UN agencies, donors and research institutions, focus on policy, practice and research at the intersection of gender and cash and CVA.

The 2020 Grand Bargain meeting revealed that the Cash Workstream continues to be one of the most productive and the importance of gender considerations in CVA was widely mentioned during the general session.

For the Cash Workstream Cash and Gender sub-workstream meeting, the members will lead with a fireside chat with a group of members:

- Tenzin Manell, Senior Technical Advisor, Cash and Livelihoods, Women's Refugee Commission
- Alina Potts, Research scientist, Global Women's Institute, George Washington University
- Anna Nicol, Policy Analyst, Bureau of Population, Refugees, and Migration (PRM), U.S. Department of State
- Sandra Uwantege Hart, Pacific Cash & Livelihoods Lead, Oxfam
- Moderated by Holly Welcome Radice, Cash and Markets Technical Advisor, CARE and sub-workstream co-lead

The webinar will end with presenting accomplishments of the past year and critical considerations to inform the direction of the coming year.
